ORDER

This case comes before the court sua sponte, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4241(a), concerning defendant's mental competency. Defendant appeared before the court today for an initial appearance on a motion to revoke his supervised release (D.E. 30). His conduct in the courtroom was disruptive and erratic, suggestive of active mental illness. He has a significant mental health history and, according to the record in this case, was most recently evaluated over two years ago. (See 8 Oct. 2010 Psychiatric Report (D.E. 22)). While defendant was found competent to proceed at that time, the motion for revocation indicates that defendant is now refusing to attend mental health treatment.

Based on the information obtained and the court's own observation, as detailed on the record, and without objection by counsel, the court found and hereby reiterates that there is reasonable cause to believe that defendant may presently be suffering from a mental disease or defect rendering him mentally incompetent to the extent that he is unable to understand the nature and consequences of the proceedings against him or to assist properly in his defense. See 18 U.S.C. § 4241(a).

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED as follows:

1. Defendant shall be examined by at least one qualified psychiatrist or psychologist under the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 4241(b) and § 4247(b) and (c) to determine if he is presently suffering from a mental disease or defect rendering him mentally incompetent to the extent that he is unable to understand the nature and consequences of the proceedings against him or to assist properly in his defense.

2. Defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for placement in a suitable facility for purposes of the examination. Defendant shall remain in the custody of such a facility until his release is ordered by this court.

3. The court recommends that defendant be placed at FMC-Butner because of its proximity to defendant's counsel.

4. Defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

5. Reports on the examination shall be prepared, served, and filed in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 4247(c). A copy of the report shall be sent directly to the chambers of the undersigned Magistrate Judge at the time of service and filing.

6. Further court proceedings in this case are continued pending order of the court after resolution of the competency issue.

7. The delay that results from the examination and continuance provided for herein shall be excluded from the Speedy Trial Act computation pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1)(A) on the grounds that the ends of justice served by granting such relief outweigh the interests of the public and defendant in a speedy trial.

8. No later than 19 November 2012, counsel shall file a joint report on the status of defendant's placement and evaluation. The memorandum shall include: the identity of the facility at which defendant has been placed for the evaluation; the expected date of completion of the evaluation if not already completed (to the extent reasonably obtainable) or, if completed, the date of completion; and if not already submitted to the court, the expected date of submission of the report on the evaluation (to the extent reasonably obtainable).

9. No later than 17 December 2012, counsel shall file another joint report on the status of defendant's placement and evaluation, which shall include the same information required in the preceding paragraph.

SO ORDERED, this the 2nd day of November 2012.

James E. Gates
United States Magistrate Judge
